AWA Educational Institute
Registration Form for
Learn It, Build It, Fix It
VT RADIO 101 – BOOT CAMP

Please Type or Print Date: ________________

Name: ____________________________________________

Address: ___________________________________________

City: __________________ State: __________ Zip: ______

email: ___________________________ Cell: ( ___ ) __________________

This AWA Educational Institute course will be held at RIT Inn & Conference Center from Sunday September 29 thru Tuesday Oct 1; 9AM to 6PM. The cost of the three days is $395, payable in advance. We will tour the Antique Wireless Museum, 6925 Route 5, Bloomfield, NY Monday evening. Registration also includes admission to the AWA Fall Conference (a $70 value), and a one-year membership in the AWA Museum (a $35 value). Class Payments are non-refundable. Students are responsible for their transportation to Rochester, as well as lodging, food, and local transportation. The RIT Inn's phone number is 585-359-1800. For the special discounted conference rate, you must reserve your room at this phone number 30 days before the start of the course.

You can bring your own All-American 5 radio (please email your radio model info to us by the end of August). Alternatively, AWA can sell or loan an AA5 for you to work on. Students must provide their own tools including soldering equipment.

Class size is limited to the first nine registrants. To reserve a spot, please either email this form to LIBIFI@AntiqueWireless.org or mail your form to arrive no later than September 1. If mailing, send to:

    Patrick Welch
    283 W High St
    Geneva, NY 14456

Payment can be made by PayPal (preferred) to StanWM3D@yahoo.com (this PayPal address belongs to AWA) or by check payable to Antique Wireless Association. Checks should be mailed to the Geneva, NY address above. Your seat will be confirmed upon payment receipt.

Please email any questions to: LIBIFI@AntiqueWireless.org